Management Comments

Sur le mois de septembre, le fonds ILO Eleven a eu une performance négative de -1,55% (Part C) contre +1,38% pour son indice de référence.

Cette différence est presque essentiellement due à la rotation sectorielle effectuée par le marché au début du mois et qui n'a pas été récupérée pour l'instant. En effet, les investisseurs ont largement vendu les valeurs de croissance (en majorité investies dans le fonds) en faveur des valeurs "value" et cycliques (banques, automobiles et ressources de base).

Malgré les nombreuses tensions géopolitiques (guerre commerciale sino-américaine, tensions au Moyen Orient, manifestations à Hong-Kong...), nous tablons sur une poursuite de la hausse avec une exposition nette du fonds supérieur à 80%.

Les principales entrées en portefeuille sur le mois sont Veolia, Heineken, Philips et Legrand; et les sorties Wolters Kluwer, Endesa et Airbus.
